GROWING AS A PROFESSIONAL.

Aviation is facing major challenges due to the impact of COVID-19, climate neutrality goals, and more. A wide range of aviation organisations require highly motivated and skilled professionals to navigate these obstacles. The Aviation Management course is the perfect way to kickstart or advance your aviation career.

We begin with the fundamentals of business management and delve deeper into airport and airline business. Soon, the essential services regarding operations, management and safety of airline companies and operators will hold no secrets for you. On top of that, you will benefit from networking opportunities, best practices and industry-specific course materials, all delivered by top experts in the field.

course is accessible to (Belgian)
airline pilots.
